

Consumers around the world
want the best grapes in the world.

Whether it's the consistent flavor, the superior quality or just knowing that they come from the trusted growers of California, people prefer our grapes. And we're here to help you capture all that demand.

The California Table Grape Commission is active in over 28 countries with in-store promotions, POS materials and consumer advertising in key regions. With such strong support and marketing, you'll be more successful, as consumers will buy with confidence when they spot our Grapes from California logo. More sales for you. The best grapes in the world for them.

For more information, visit grapesfromcalifornia.com